

Free Public Fly-Casting Contests

Sat. July 9th for Beginning/Advancing Casters

We call it the 2nd “Bunyan Bug Bulls-Eye Contest”

(Loosely) Sponsored by the Fly Fishers Club of Orange County

Have you been chafing at the bit to get your fly rod out of the closet and cast again? Or, has something about fly fishing has piqued your interest? Perfect! Get out of that Saturday morning lounge chair and join us! Sharpen your skills for the summer fishing season...pick up a few tips...hear some fishing lies...and be on your way!

This one-of-a-kind “Bunyan Bug Bulls-Eye” Fly-Casting Contest is open to members and to the public beginning/advancing casters of all ages and walks-of-life. Bring your own rod if you have one. If not, we have all the equipment you will need.

The cost is FREE! Prizes worth up to $ Millions available including a Brand New Fisher Fiberglass Fishing Rod (who says you get what you pay for!) If you are just starting your fly fishing journey, you can pick up some essential information about casting, equipment, casting techniques and fishing locations...and maybe a fish story or two (whether a slight untruth, falsehood, fib or outright lie...we do not discriminate!).

Mason Regional Park
(after entering park turn left until reaching Parking Lot F. From there, walk straight out to open area to the south)

When: Saturday, July 9
9:00 to 10:30 AM

Where: Mason Regional Park
18712 University Dr, Irvine

Cost: Free. There is a $5 Parking Fee charged at Park Entry.

The Casting Clinic concludes at 10:30 am. A few knowledgeable casters will remain after the event for questions!
